Letter from Leavenworth.

Colin,

Also in our fair city, an incident occurred at our local swim pool, called Wollman Park. Unfortunately I am sure they are unable to comment on the event that occurred approximately 1 month ago.

It was reported in the local paper as a mere “theft” at the pool. The details are much more shocking than that, according to eyewitnesses, including a lifeguard that was there when it happened.

The pool has full surveillance, so maybe a reporter with some clout could obtain the video. At the end of the day, patrons of the pool discovered valuables missing from their locker, and others discovered their clothing items had been disturbed. Upon review of the film, the manager discovered 2 African american females had entered the locker rooms of men and women and helped themselves to the content of every locker.

When the manager approached the “youth” females, they screamed at him that he had no right, and there was no way he could ever prove that the people in the video were them. They yelled and made such a huge scene, even calling him a racist, that he allowed them to leave, telling them not to come back.

After an hour or so, the “youths” returned, as did the mother of an 8 year old Caucasian boy who had his expensive cell phone taken. The mother confronted the youths, pointed out to her by management, and they responded by calling her names and threatening to kill her and her son.

MOMENTS later, according to a life guard on duty, around a hundred other youths came out of no where. They surrounded the lifeguards, pool manager, and mother; shouting insults and threats, until police arrived. Police cited the youths with citations for public disruption, charging them with nothing (because they had been allowed to leave, they had no stolen property on them, though clearly in the video they had went locker to locker”.

All of the people with stolen merchandise lined up to report their stolen properties to the police, who reported to person after person that there was nothing that could be done to compensate them, as apparently when you sign in to swim at the pool you waive them of all liability for your merchandise.

Unfortunately, Mr. Flaherty, the Leavenworth Times reported this issue as a mere incident at the pool, involving theft.

They failed to mention the mob that surrounded police and the family of stolen property, that came from nowhere, anywhere in the account.

I didn’t mention this before, because again and most sadly, it was just a slight incidence of theft at a pool, and nothing more,according to the paper. I provided you the number to the pool, hoping that maybe someone like you can get the surveillance video, and show my citizens what really happened.

Thanks again for your work.

xx

Letter from Kennywood.

Colin,

I've lived in Pittsburgh my whole life and this is nothing new. I remember at least 20 years ago leaving Kennywood at the end of the night with my parents and being stuck in traffic in the shitty neighborhoods near the park with everyone else leaving at the same time.

Groups of young black men would gather on the street corners near the park and hurl rocks and bottles at the cars while the traffic slowed to a crawl.

New podcast: Bus driver speaks out on black mob violence and hostility on the job.

There are so many stories about buses connected to black mob violence. Sometimes people use the bus to travel to the scene of the crime.

Other times they use the bus to escape.

And lots of times the bus is the scene of nasty racial violence against the bus driver and or the passengers.

Here a bus driver who was stabbed speaks out.

Letter from a trainee.

Colin,

Having suffered through the disgusting horror known as “Diversity Training” four times in my career, let me impart a bit of the experience to you.

It does not matter who runs the workshop, the first item on the agenda is ALWAYS some variation of the following theme: You’re white. This makes you a racist. You cannot help it.

You may not think so, but the racism you engage in is often unconscious, and therefore, you will never notice it. This is not your fault, though, as your racist culture has imprinted various bad racist habits upon your psyche.

This is then invariably followed by the neat little trick of giving everyone a short passage to read, usually just a few paragraphs, and asking them to count the number of times a small word occurs (usually a conjunction or small pronoun, like the word “of”).

No one ever gets this right: the reason being the brain skips over this word when reading, because while we read words, our brains translate them into the barest essentials: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, and the rest gets lost in translation.

When you’re AMAZED at how difficult this seemingly simple test really is, and you have a really weak intellect, you begin to think to yourself that the whole “You’re white, you’re racist, but just don’t notice” bullshit just might be right.

Nice little brainwashing operation you get paid for there, isn’t it?

The first time they tried that one me, I told the instructor to go fk himself, and walked out. I was told if I didn’t return I would fired.

xx

Letter from Missouri

I went to Baden School in St. Louis, MO., in Baden, from k-7, and it was a public school in an all white neighborhood.

In 3rd grade by a court order the hoodrats started to get bused in, and this was 1968. School turned into a nightmare with these ghetto beasts, for the teachers. For the white boys like myself, recess turned into ass beating time for the blacks who attacked the white girls and picked on the white sissy boys.

The 1st fist fight I got into was at a state park when I was 5 and a black pushed my 4 year old sister off a slide and cussed her. I told it you don't talk to white people like that ever and it cussed me and took a swing. I beat the piss out him and my mom was mortified but my old man pulled me off this 5 year beast and saw all the blood on my fists and that shitheads face covered in blood and he told my 2 grandpa's what happened and they were very pleased.

In 6th and 7th grade I was a patrol boy and everytime a rat of the hood chimped out and had to go to the principal's office for an ass beating with a paddle, the loudspeaker would bark for a patrol boy to haul 1 down. It happened every day and the ghetto monkeys would cuss the whole way down, and Principal Hannebrink beat all kids for cursing, note I didn't refer to the blacks as students. He would smack their retarded asses until they dropped because they could not stop cussing. After school activities were cool because there were no blacks.

I can totally relate to your reverse situation, the black started all the shit at Baden School, so much of the school day was wasted with a teacher asking a negro to read a paragraph from Kon Tiki or Little House on the Prairie, or who was Vasco de Gama, and the black screaming, f*ck you honkey bitch, suck my motherf*cking d*ck. And then a patrol boy would get called to haul the beast down to get its well deserved beating, oh and spitting on the teacher also. In 8th grade I went to Holy Cross Catholic grade school, where there were 2 black students, what a difference.

The Critics on White Girl Bleed a Lot:

Thomas Sowell:

”Reading Colin Flaherty’s book made painfully clear to me that the magnitude of this problem is greater than I had discovered from my own research. He documents both the race riots and the media and political evasions in dozens of cities.” – National Review.

From #1 Best Selling Author John Stryker Meyer:

"Colin Flaherty was the reporter’s reporter -- especially on tough stories. And he was recognized for it with more than 50 journalism awards from around the country.

"Now he has written a book about the toughest story of all: Racial violence."

"Flaherty has the goods: This is an important and penetrating book about a big problem. Read it. Pass it around. Send it to a local talk show host or, better still, a reporter."

"Lord knows they need it."

Sean Hannity

White Girl Bleed a Lot ”has gone viral.”

Los Angeles Times

“A favorite of conservative voices.”

Foseti.com

"Flaherty digs up some great examples of officials denying or covering up black violence.

My favorite example was a school superintendent in Philadelphia who circulated "a pamphlet on how not to antagonize black students" to Asian students while the local papers were busying explaining that the violence had "no racial component." Right."

Alex Jones:

“Brilliant. Could not put it down.”

Neal Boortz

“Colin Flaherty has become Public Enemy No.1 to the leftist media because of his research on black culture of violence.”

Bill Cunningham

It is official: “Colin Flaherty is a great American. A wonderful book.”

Bretibart.com: “Prescient. Ahead of the News. Garnering attention and sparking important discussions.”

”At least author Colin Flaherty is tackling this issue (or racial violence) in his new book, White Girl Bleed a Lot: The Return of Racial Violence to America and How the Media Ignore it.“

David Horowitz

“A determined reporter, Colin Flaherty, broke ranks to document these rampages in a book titled, White Girl Bleed A Lot”

World Net Daily

"Uh - oh… Now you’ve done it Mr. Flaherty. You’ve spoken the (gasp) truth!"

Fellowship of the Mind:

"Get your copy of the book and spread the word. This tsunami of black racial violence is domestic terrorism. Burying our heads in the sand and ignoring this reality will only put ourselves and the lives of our loved ones in danger." "I refuse to be intimidated and terrorized. Join me!"

Jack Cashill

“In White Girl Bleed A Lot, Colin Flaherty bravely goes where the major media dare not follow. In short, he tells the truth about America’s otherwise unspoken epidemic of black on non-black crime.” “What makes this otherwise grim saga so readable is Flaherty’s magical sense of humor. Among contemporary authors only Flaherty’s fellow alchemist Mark Steyn has a comparable ability to transform dread into gold.”

NPR — Morning Edition.

“In conservative media, Colin Flaherty has catalogued the Knockout Game.”

Slate

“Colin Flaherty is at the epicenter of the Knockout Game.”

Columnist of Year, Society of Professional Journalists

"This is a challenging book. An interesting and powerful and ultimately persuasive book by a great American writer not afraid to look at one of the most thought about but unspoken features of American life."

The Critics on Colin Flaherty

David Ignatius of the Washington Post:

"Colin Flaherty is a strong favorite."

NPR

"Great book by a great guy."
